

Document 1 : the map of Northwest France and the southern British Isles will be a compulsory part of your travel diary.

1. Write the following names in black at the appropriate locations on the map : Belfast, Cardiff, Cherbourg, Drogheda, Dublin, London, Monaghan*, Montaigu, Nantes, Rennes.
2. Write the following names in black CAPITALS : Eire, England, France, Northern Ireland, Scotland, Wales.
3. Write the following names in blue at the appropriate locations on the map : The English Channel, The Irish Sea, The Atlantic Ocean
4. Colour the national and EU flags. Write the names IN ENGLISH of the two Irish national symbols on the document.
5. Colour The Republic of Ireland (Eire) green for the lowlands and brown for the uplands (check in an atlas). Colour Northern Ireland orange.
6. Calculate the distance from Montaigu to Monaghan*, as the crow flies, both in kilometres and in miles.
7. Calculate the time spent on the ferry on the outward voyage (NB there is an hour's time difference between France and The UK and Ireland).
8. Indicate by a dotted line the route taken during the journey. NB The ferry will sail west of Lands End, but east of the Scilly Isles.